MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

BRIDGEPORT MUSIC, INC., et al.	)
v.	)	NO. 3:01-0412
	)	JUDGE CAMPBELL
11C MUSIC, et al.	)

ORDER

Because of the numerous parties, the following procedures shall apply to this case pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5 and the inherent powers of the Court.

I. Service of Orders[1]

1. The Clerk shall post all orders on the Court's website (http://www.tnmd.uscourts.gov/) under "Selected Opinions." Counsel for the parties shall check the Court's website for orders.

2. The Clerk shall serve all orders on counsel for Plaintiffs by both United States mail (hard copy) and e-mail. The Clerk shall maintain a "c.c." record of service by e-mail, in addition to usual record-keeping procedures.

3. Counsel for Plaintiffs shall promptly serve on all parties a copy of each order served by the Clerk within three (3) calendar days of receipt by counsel for Plaintiffs. Such service may be by hard copy, facsimile, or by e-mail. Counsel for Plaintiffs shall maintain a record of the method of service used in accordance with Local Rule 8(a)(4).

[1] Counsel without Internet or e-mail access shall so advise the Court by appropriate motion.

This document was entered on the docket in compliance with Rule 58 and / or Rule 79 (a) FRCP. on 5-8-01 By

II. Pleadings and Motions

1. Defendants are not required to serve on other Defendants copies of pleadings or motions unless: (a) ordered by the Court; or (b) such pleading or motion specifically applies to another Defendant or mentions another Defendant.

III. Copies

1. Copies of docket sheets must be obtained via PACER. PACER may be accessed through the Court's website at (http://www.tnmd.uscourts.gov/) under "Case Information" and then "Docket Sheets."

2. Copies of documents filed with the Court must be obtained from the party who filed the document initially, rather than from the Court, absent extraordinary circumstances.

IV. Trial and Pretrial Conference

By Order entered contemporaneously herewith, this case is set for a jury trial on November 4, 2002 and a pre-trial conference on October 14, 2002. The parties should not anticipate a continuance of the trial date.

V. Dispositive Motions

The following deadlines are established for dispositive motions:

1. Dispositive motion deadline is June 4, 2002.
2. Responses shall be filed by July 1, 2002.
3. Replies shall be filed by July 15, 2002.

The parties should not anticipate a continuance of the dispositive motion deadlines.

VI. Referral to Magistrate Judge

This case is referred to the Magistrate Judge for the entry of a scheduling order and determination of all non-dispositive motions. All pre-trial deadlines shall conform to the trial, pre-trial conference, and dispositive motion deadlines set forth above. Absent order of the Magistrate Judge, this case is not subject to customized case management pursuant to Local Rule 11.

Pursuant to Local Rule 11(e)(1) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d), discovery is not stayed absent further order of the District Judge.

VII. Summons

Plaintiffs are hereby ordered to file by Monday, May 14, 2001, all summons to be issued by the Court regarding the Complaint. Such summons shall be served promptly by Plaintiffs on Defendants to avoid delay in the progression of the case.

Counsel for Plaintiffs shall promptly serve a copy of this Order on Defendants with the Complaint.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
