Administrative Order No. 95

ORDER

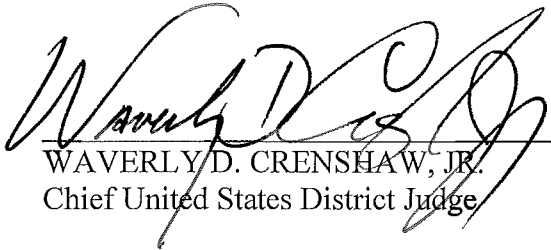

This Order vacates all previous versions of Administrative Order 95 and is effective on the date of its entry.

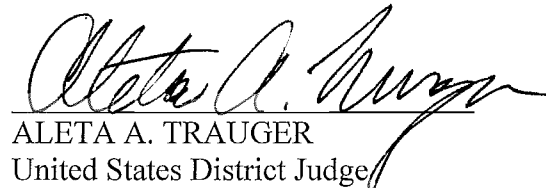

The Bench and Bar Fund, formerly referred to as the Library and Miscellaneous Fund, is hereby constituted, and shall be governed, as in the past, by a committee of five members composed of the Chief Judge of the District Court, the Chief Judge of the Bankruptcy Court, the Clerk of the District Court, the Sixth Circuit Librarian stationed at the Sixth Circuit satellite library located in the Nashville Courthouse, and the President of the Nashville Bar Association. The Committee shall decide matters by majority vote, with the Chief Judge of the District Court being granted veto power over all matters. Voting in person, by telephone, or by mail is authorized, and a record of any vote authorizing the expenditure of funds shall be kept by the Clerk. The Clerk of Court shall function as the Secretary of the Bench and Bar Fund and shall be tasked with ensuring all matters are conducted in accord with the provisions of the Guide to Judiciary Policy, Volume 4, Chapter 6, § et seq. as it now exists or as updated. In addition, the Clerk shall be responsible for providing committee members with quarterly reports tracking the expenditure of funds and the fund balance.

Effective December 1, 2020, attorney admission fees are revised as follows:

1. The enrollment fee for the admission of attorneys to practice before this Court is two hundred thirty-eight dollars ($238.00). One hundred eighty-eight dollars ($188.00) of that amount shall be split with twenty dollars ($20.00) being credited to the General Fund Receipt Account, Fund 085000, and one hundred sixty-eight dollars ($168.00) will be credited to the Filing Fee – Judiciary, Fund 510000, which shall be deposited by the Clerk in the Treasury of the United States. The balance of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be deposited in the Library and Miscellaneous Fund.
2. The pro hac vice admission fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per attorney established by Administrative Order 95, dated December 4, 2018, is hereby increased by fifty dollars ($50.00) to one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00). Federal government attorneys are exempt from paying the pro hac vice fee.

It is so ORDERED.
