The following rule is hereby adopted by the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee:

RULE

A. Docket Control. In all cases and proceedings referred to the United States Bankruptcy Judges for the Middle District of Tennessee appointed as standing masters for this district pursuant to Administrative Order No. 28-3, the bankruptcy judges are authorized to issue such notices, orders and directives as are necessary for the efficient docketing, management and control of matters pending before them. Specifically, but without limitation, the bankruptcy judges may issue notices and may require the filing of documents, the attendance of parties and counsels at hearings and other proceedings, may schedule and reschedule trials, hearings, conferences and appearances of all sorts as may be required or permitted by the Bankruptcy Code and may otherwise take such binding actions as are necessary to control the docketing of bankruptcy cases. O R D E R

The purpose of this order is to supplement sections B(2) and C(2) of Administrative Order No. 28-3 entered by this court on March 1, 1983.

(1) All cases commenced under the Bankruptcy Act of 1978 and currently pending in this court, and all civil proceedings commenced under the 1978 Act or arising in or related to cases commenced under the 1978 Act and currently pending in this court, are hereby referred to the standing bankruptcy masters for this judicial district. The exceptional conditions which warrant such a referral to the standing masters of pending bankruptcy matters include:

(a) the unanticipated unconstitutionality of the grant of jurisdiction and power to United States bankruptcy judges contained in § 241(a) of the Bankruptcy Act of 1978;

(b) the clear intent of the Congress to refer bankruptcy matters to bankruptcy judges;

(c) the large number of bankruptcy cases now pending in this district;

MAR 9 1983

(d) the administrative difficulties involved in the district court's assumption of the existing bankruptcy caseload;

(e) the availability of specialized expertise necessary for the expeditious handling of these bankruptcy matters; and

(f) The familiarity that the standing bankruptcy masters have with these pending matters.

(2) The clerk of the bankruptcy court shall forthwith assign all pending bankruptcy cases, referred hereby and not previously referred, to a district judge on a random selection basis. Any civil proceeding commenced under the Bankruptcy Act of 1978 or arising in or related to a case commenced under the 1978 Act, and referred hereby, shall be assigned by the clerk of the bankruptcy court to the district judge to whom the related bankruptcy case is assigned.

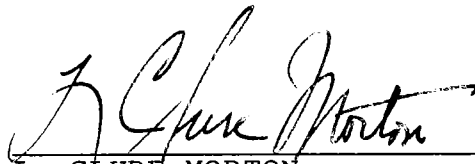

(3) All pending bankruptcy cases and proceedings referred hereby are referred in accordance with the provisions of Rule 53 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Administrative Order No. 28-3 entered by this court on March 1, 1983. However, in all bankruptcy cases and related civil proceedings in which the United States bankruptcy judges for this district conducted hearings and/or entered judgments, dispositive orders, or other non-ministerial orders on or after December 25, 1982, the performance by the standing masters of the duties imposed under this order shall be nunc pro tunc. That is, in such cases and proceedings the standing bankruptcy masters need not re-hear matters previously heard or receive additional evidence pertaining to issues previously adjudicated by the masters in their capacities as United States bankruptcy judges. In such cases and proceedings, the standing masters may submit as reports, any findings of facts, conclusions of law, memoranda of decisions, judgments, or dispositive orders previously made or entered in such causes.

(4) All reports submitted by the standing bankruptcy masters in referred cases and proceedings shall be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court who shall forthwith mail to all parties notice of the filing and transmit the report to the appropriate district judge. The district judge shall act upon the report of the master in accordance with the provisions of Rule 53 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

O R D E R

The purpose of this order is to provide for the orderly administration of the bankruptcy matters in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee.

1. Prior Administrative Order. Administrative Order No. 28, entered by the court on December 24, 1982, is hereby vacated.

2. The following rule is hereby adopted by the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee:

A. Standing Masters. The United States Bankruptcy Judges for the Middle District of Tennessee are hereby appointed standing masters for this district to assist the district court in the administration of cases commenced under Title 11 of the United States Code, and in the disposition of civil proceedings arising under Title 11 or arising in or related to cases under Title 11. For the services they perform the standing masters will receive no compensation other than the compensation to which they are entitled by virtue of their employment with the United States Government.

MAR 1 1983

B. Prior Actions by bankruptcy judges.

(1) All bankruptcy cases or proceedings commenced in the Middle District of Tennessee on or after December 25, 1982 and dismissed by the bankruptcy judges for lack of subject matter jurisdiction are hereby deemed to be pending in the United States District Court for such district. All orders entered by the bankruptcy judges dismissing such cases or proceedings are hereby vacated.

(2) All orders entered by the United States bankruptcy judges after December 24, 1982, in bankruptcy cases and proceedings commenced before December 24, 1982, are hereby declared to be void and of no effect. The district judge to whom such cases and proceedings are assigned under paragraph C(2) of this rule shall review such action taken by the bankruptcy judges and shall make any and all orders necessary for the just disposition of such matters.

C. Filing of bankruptcy papers.

(1) The bankruptcy court constituted by § 404 of Public Law 95-598, 92 Stat., shall continue to be known as the United States Bankruptcy Court for this district. The Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court is hereby designated to maintain the files in all bankruptcy cases and proceedings now pending or hereafter commenced in this district. Unless otherwise provided by this rule, all petitions and papers to be submitted in such bankruptcy cases and proceedings shall be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court.

(2) All cases commenced under Title 11 of the United States Code shall be assigned by the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court to a district judge on a random selection basis. Thereafter, any civil proceeding commenced under Title 11, or arising in or related to a bankruptcy case already commenced shall be assigned by the Clerk to the district judge to whom the related case under Title 11 is assigned.

D. Review by district court.

(1) Once a bankruptcy case or proceeding is commenced pursuant to the provisions of Title 11, and assigned in accordance with paragraph C(2) of this Rule, the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court shall forthwith transmit the file to the district judge for review, and thereafter the Clerk shall forthwith transfer all reports and proposed orders from the special masters.

(2) After reviewing the file, the district judge may, if appropriate, refer any case brought under Title 11 of the United States Code, and any matter or proceeding arising therein or related thereto, to the standing masters in accordance with Rule 53 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The referred cases and proceedings may be assigned by the standing masters in accordance with the Bankruptcy Court's usual system for the assignment of cases.

(3) Unless otherwise provided by the order of reference, the standing masters shall have all powers and duties with respect to such referred matters as is provided by this rule.

(4) The files and records in bankruptcy cases, proceedings, and matters not referred to standing bankruptcy masters by a district judge shall be maintained by the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, and any future papers to be submitted in such causes shall be filed with the Clerk of the district court.

E. Powers and duties of standing masters.

(1) If referred, bankruptcy cases shall be referred to the standing masters for the purpose of proper administration in accordance with the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code. The standing masters shall have the power to do all acts and take all measures necessary or proper for the efficient administration of such bankruptcy cases. However, the exercise of such power and the performance of such duties shall be in accordance with the provisions and limitations of Rule 53, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Where the provisions of Title 11, U.S.C., call for action by the court in the administration of such bankruptcy cases, the standing master shall submit a report. The report shall consist of a proposed order, and if required, proposed findings of facts and conclusions of law. Such report shall be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court who shall forthwith mail to all parties in interest notice of the filing. The Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court shall submit the report of the standing master to the district judge to whom the case is assigned. The district judge shall act thereupon in accordance with the provisions of Rule 53.

(2) If referred, civil proceedings arising under Title 11 of the U.S.C., or arising in or related to cases under Title 11 shall be referred to the standing masters for the purpose of conducting such evidentiary hearings as are necessary and proper for the determination of the merits of claims involved in those actions. The special masters shall have the power to do all acts and take all measures necessary for the efficient performance of such duties. However, the exercise of such power and the performance of such duties shall be in accordance with the provisions and limitations of Rule 53, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. At the end of such hearing or hearings, the special masters shall prepare a report to be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court. The Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court shall mail to all parties in interest notice of the filing, and shall submit the report of the standing masters to the district judge to whom the proceeding is assigned. The district judge shall act thereupon in accordance with the provisions of Rule 53.

F. Miscellaneous provisions.

(1) Trustees. In all Chapter 7 cases in which the provisions of Title 11 mandate the appointment of a trustee, the district judge to whom the case is assigned shall forthwith enter an order providing for the appointment of an interim trustee.

(2) Orders Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1325(b) in Chapter 13 Matters. In each bankruptcy case filed pursuant to Chapter 13 of Title 11, United States Code, the district judge to whom the case is assigned shall enter such orders appropriate under 11 U.S.C. § 1325(b).

(3) Emergency matters. Notwithstanding any other provision of this order or any existing order of reference, a party in interest requiring immediate relief from this court in a particular bankruptcy matter, may present that request directly to the district judge to whom the case has been assigned or to any other judge of this court, in the event of absence or unavailability of the judge to whom the case is assigned.

(4) Automatic stay litigation. Because of the time constraints set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 362(e), in those referred proceedings in which relief from the automatic stay is at issue, the standing master shall hold the required hearings within five (5) days less than the time frame provided within 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d) and (e). At the end of such hearings the standing master shall file with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court a proposed order and a report which shall be transmitted to the district judge instanter, in accordance with paragraph D(1) of this Rule.

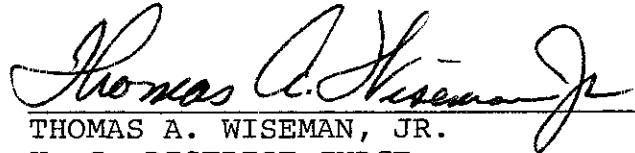

(5) Discharge hearings. The district court shall from time to time schedule and conduct discharge hearings required by 11 U.S.C. § 524(d). Such hearings shall be conducted by a standing master under the supervision of a district judge.

G. Standing Trustee for Chapter 13 matters. Henry E. Hildebrand, III, is appointed Standing Trustee for Chapter 13 matters in this district in accordance with 11 U.S.C. § 1302.

THE BANKRUPTCY SYSTEM) Nashville Gen. Docket

Columbia Gen. Doc. 58

O R D E R

The following rule is hereby adopted by the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee:

(a) Emergency Resolution

The purpose of this rule is to convey to the bankruptcy judges of this district authority to act in bankruptcy cases and proceedings until the Congress enacts appropriate remedial legislation in response to the Supreme Court's decision in Northern Pipeline Construction Co. v. Marathon Pipe Line, Co., _____ U.S. _____, 102 S. Ct. 2858 (1982), or until March 31, 1984, whichever first occurs.

DEC 24 1982

he judges of the district court find that exceptional circumstances exist. These circumstances include: (1) the unanticipated unconstitutionality of the grant of power to bankruptcy judges in section 241(a) of Public Law 95-598; (2) the clear intent of Congress to refer bankruptcy matters to bankruptcy judges; (3) the specialized expertise necessary to the determination of bankruptcy matters; and (4) the administrative difficulty of the district courts' assuming the existing bankruptcy caseload on short notice.

Therefore, the orderly conduct of the business of the court requires this referral of bankruptcy cases to the bankruptcy judges.

(b) Filing of bankruptcy papers

The bankruptcy court constituted by § 404 of the Public Law 95-598 shall continue to be known as the United States Bankruptcy Court of this district. The Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court is hereby designated to maintain all files in bankruptcy cases and adversary proceedings. All papers in cases or proceedings arising under or related to Title 11 shall be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court regardless of whether the case or proceeding is before a bankruptcy judge or a judge of the district court, except that a judgment by the district judge shall be filed in accordance with Rule 921 of the Bankruptcy Rules.

c. Reference to Bankruptcy Judges

(1) All cases under Title 11 and all civil proceedings arising under Title 11 or arising in or related to cases under Title 11 are referred to the bankruptcy judges of this district.

(2) The reference to a bankruptcy judge may be withdrawn by the district court at any time on its own motion or on timely motion by a party. A motion for withdrawal of reference shall not stay any bankruptcy matter pending before a bankruptcy judge unless a specific stay is issued by the district court. If a reference is withdrawn, the district court may retain the entire matter, may refer part of the matter back to the bankruptcy judge or may refer the entire matter back to the bankruptcy judge with instructions specifying the powers and functions that the bankruptcy judge may exercise. Any matter in which the reference is withdrawn shall be reassigned to a district judge in accordance with the court's usual system for assigning civil cases.

(3) Referred cases and proceedings may be transferred in whole or in part between bankruptcy judges within the district without approval of a district judge.

d. Powers of Bankruptcy Judges

(1) The bankruptcy judges may perform in referred bankruptcy cases and proceedings all acts and duties necessary for the handling of those cases and proceedings except that the bankruptcy judges may not conduct:

- (A) a proceeding to enjoin a court;
- (B) a proceeding to punish a criminal contempt--
 - (i) not committed in the bankruptcy judge's actual presence; or
 - (ii) warranting a punishment of imprisonment;
- (C) an appeal from a judgment, order, decree, or decision of a United States bankruptcy judge; or
- (D) jury trials.

Those matters which may not be performed by a bankruptcy judge shall be transferred to a district judge.

(2) Except as provided in (d)(3), orders and judgments of bankruptcy judges shall be effective upon entry by the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, unless stayed by the bankruptcy judge or a district judge.

(3) (A) Related proceedings are those civil proceedings that, in the absence of a petition in bankruptcy, could have been brought in a district court or a state court. Related proceedings include, but are not limited to, claims brought by the estate against parties who have not filed claims against the estate. Related proceedings do not include: contested and uncontested matters concerning the administration of the estate; allowance of and objection to claims against the estate; counterclaims by the estate in whatever amount against persons filing claims against the estate; orders in respect to obtaining credit; orders to turn over property of the estate; proceedings to set aside preferences and fraudulent conveyance; proceedings in respect to lifting of the automatic stay; proceedings to determine dischargeability of particular debts; proceedings to object to the discharge; proceedings in respect to the confirmation of plans; orders approving the sale of property where not arising from proceedings resulting from claims brought by the estate against parties who have not filed claims against the estate; and similar matters. A proceeding is not a related proceeding merely because the outcome will be affected by state law.

(B) In related proceedings the bankruptcy judge may not enter a judgment or dispositive order, but shall submit findings, conclusions, and a proposed judgment or order to the district judge, unless the parties to the proceeding consent to entry of the judgment or order by the bankruptcy judge.

(e) District Court Review

(1) A notice of appeal from a final order or judgment or proposed order or judgment of a bankruptcy judge or an application for leave to appeal an interlocutory order of a bankruptcy judge, shall be filed within 10 days of the date of entry of the judgment or order or of the lodgment of the proposed judgment or order. As modified by sections (e) 2A and B of this rule, the procedures set forth in Part VIII of the Bankruptcy Rules apply to appeals of bankruptcy judges' judgments and orders and the procedures set forth in Bankruptcy Interim Rule 8004 apply to applications for leave to appeal interlocutory orders of bankruptcy judges. Modification by the district judge or the bankruptcy judge of time for appeal is governed by Rule 802 of the Bankruptcy Rules.

(2) (A) A district judge shall review:

(i) an order or judgment entered under paragraph (d)(2) if a timely notice of appeal has been filed or if a timely application for leave to appeal has been granted;

(ii) an order or judgment entered under paragraph (d)(2) if the bankruptcy judge certifies that circumstances require that the order or judgment be approved by a district judge, whether or not the matter was controverted before the bankruptcy judge or any notice of appeal or application for leave to appeal was filed; and

(iii) a proposed order or judgment lodged under paragraph (d)(3), whether or not any notice of appeal or application for leave to appeal has been filed.

(B) In conducting review, the district judge may hold a hearing and may receive such evidence as appropriate and may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the order or judgment of the bankruptcy judge, and need give no deference to the findings of the bankruptcy judge. At the conclusion of the review, the district judge shall enter an appropriate order or judgment.

(3) When the bankruptcy judge certifies that circumstances require immediate review by a district judge of any matter subject to review under paragraph (d)(2), the district judge shall review the matter and enter an order or judgment as soon as possible.

(4) It shall be the burden of the parties to raise the issue of whether any proceeding is a related proceeding prior to the time of the entry of the order of judgment of the district judge after review.

(f) Local Rules

In proceedings before a bankruptcy judge, the local rules of the bankruptcy court shall apply. In proceedings before a judge of the district court, the local rules of the district court shall apply.

(g) Bankruptcy Rules and Title IV of Public Law 95-598

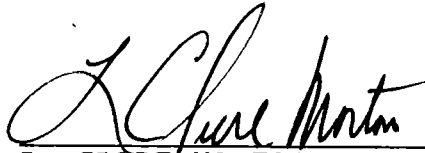

Courts of bankruptcy and procedure in bankruptcy shall continue to be governed by Title IV of Public Law 95-598 as amended and by the bankruptcy rules prescribed by the Supreme Court of the United States pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2075 and limited by SEC. 405(d) of the Act, to the extent that such Title and Rules are not inconsistent with the holding of Northern Pipeline Construction Co. v. Marathon Pipe Line Co., ___ U.S.

_____, 102 S. Ct. 2858 (1982).

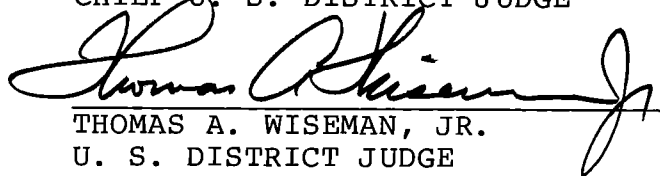

(h) Effective Date and Pending Cases

This rule shall become effective December 25, 1982, and shall apply to all bankruptcy cases and proceedings not governed by the Bankruptcy Act of 1898 as amended, and filed on or after October 1, 1979. Any bankruptcy matters pending before a bankruptcy judge on December 25, 1982, shall be deemed referred to that judge.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE SIXTH CIRCUIT

ORDER

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in the Judicial Council by 28 U.S.C. §332(d), the Judicial Council of the Sixth Circuit concludes that the uniform effective and expeditious administration of justice within this Circuit requires that the attached rule for the administration of the bankruptcy system in this Circuit be adopted by the District Courts of this Circuit pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §105.

It therefore is ordered that each District Court of this Circuit adopt the attached rule to become effective December 25, 1982 if the Congress fails to enact remedial legislation in response to the Supreme Court's decision in Northern Pipeline Construction Co. vs. Marathon Pipe Line Co., ___ U.S. ___, 102 S. Ct. 2858 (1982), and if the Supreme Court fails to extend the stay of its mandate in that case.

For the Council:

George Edwards
George Edwards, Chief Judge
Sixth Circuit

Date: December 21, 1982

DEC 27 1982

(a) Emergency Resolution

The purpose of this rule is to supplement existing law and rules in respect to the authority of the bankruptcy judges of this district to act in bankruptcy cases and proceedings until Congress enacts appropriate remedial legislation in response to the Supreme Court's decision in Northern Pipeline Construction Co. v. Marathon Pipe Line Co., _____ U.S. _____, 102 S. Ct. 2858 (1982), or until March 31, 1984, whichever first occurs.

The judges of the district court find that exceptional circumstances exist. These circumstances include: (1) the unanticipated unconstitutionality of the grant of power to bankruptcy judges in section 241(a) of Public Law 95-598; (2) the clear intent of Congress to refer bankruptcy matters to bankruptcy judges; (3) the specialized expertise necessary to the determination of bankruptcy matters; and (4) the administrative difficulty of the district courts' assuming the existing bankruptcy caseload on short notice.

Therefore, the orderly conduct of the business of the court requires this referral of bankruptcy cases to the bankruptcy judges.

(b) Filing of bankruptcy papers

The bankruptcy court constituted by §404 of Public Law 95-598 shall continue to be known as the United States Bankruptcy Court of this district. The Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court is hereby designated to maintain all files in bankruptcy cases and adversary proceedings. All papers in cases or proceedings arising under or related to Title 11 shall be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court regardless of whether the case or proceeding is before a bankruptcy judge or a judge of the district court, except that a judgment by the district judge shall be filed in accordance with Rule 921 of the Bankruptcy Rules.

(c) Reference to Bankruptcy Judges

(1) All cases under Title 11 and all civil proceedings arising under Title 11 or arising in or related to cases under Title 11 are referred to the bankruptcy judges of this district.

(2) The reference to a bankruptcy judge may be withdrawn by the district court at any time on its own motion or on timely motion by a party. A motion for withdrawal of reference shall not stay any bankruptcy matter pending before a bankruptcy judge unless a specific stay is issued by the district court. If a reference is withdrawn, the district court may retain the entire matter, may refer part of the matter back to the bankruptcy judge, or may refer the entire matter back to the bankruptcy judge with instructions specifying the powers and functions that the bankruptcy judge may exercise. Any matter in which the reference is withdrawn shall be reassigned to a district judge in accordance with the court's usual system for assigning civil cases.

(3) Referred cases and proceedings may be transferred in whole or in part between bankruptcy judges within the district without approval of a district judge.

(d) Powers of Bankruptcy Judges

(1) The bankruptcy judges may perform in referred bankruptcy cases and proceedings all acts and duties necessary for the handling of those cases and proceedings except that the bankruptcy judges may not conduct:

- (A) a proceeding to enjoin a court;
- (B) a proceeding to punish a criminal contempt --
 - (i) not committed in the bankruptcy judge's actual presence; or
 - (ii) warranting a punishment of imprisonment;
- (C) an appeal from a judgment, order, decree, or decision of a United States bankruptcy judge; or
- (D) jury trials.

Those matters which may not be performed by a bankruptcy judge shall be transferred to a district judge.

(2) Except as provided in (d)(3), orders and judgments of bankruptcy judges shall be effective upon entry by the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, unless stayed by the bankruptcy judge or a district judge.

(3) (A) Related proceedings are those civil proceedings that, in the absence of a petition in bankruptcy, could have been brought in a district court or a state court. Related proceedings include, but are not limited to, claims brought by the estate against parties who have not filed claims against the estate. Related proceedings do not include: contested and uncontested matters concerning the administration of the estate; allowance of and objection to claims against the estate; counterclaims by the estate in whatever amount against persons filing claims against the estate; orders in respect to obtaining credit; orders to turn over property of the estate; proceedings to set aside preferences and fraudulent conveyances; proceedings in respect to lifting of the automatic stay; proceedings to determine dischargeability of particular debts; proceedings to object to the discharge; proceedings in respect to the confirmation of plans; orders approving the sale of property where not arising from proceedings resulting from claims brought by the estate against parties who have not filed claims against the estate; and similar matters. A proceeding is not a related proceeding merely because the outcome will be affected by state law.

(B) In related proceedings the bankruptcy judge may not enter a judgment or dispositive order, but shall submit findings, conclusions, and a proposed judgment or order to the district judge, unless the parties to the proceeding consent to entry of the judgment or order by the bankruptcy judge.

(e) District Court Review

(1) A notice of appeal from a final order or judgment or proposed order or judgment of a bankruptcy judge or an application for leave to appeal an interlocutory order of a bankruptcy judge, shall be filed within 10 days of the date of entry of the judgment or order or of the lodgment of the proposed judgment or order. As modified by sections (e) 2A and B of this rule, the procedures set forth in Part VIII of the Bankruptcy Rules apply to appeals of bankruptcy judges' judgments and orders and the procedures set forth in Bankruptcy Interim Rule 8004 apply to applications for leave to appeal interlocutory orders of bankruptcy judges. Modification by the district judge or the bankruptcy judge of time for appeal is governed by Rule 802 of the Bankruptcy Rules.

(2) (A) A district judge shall review:

(i) an order or judgment entered under paragraph (d) (2) if a timely notice of appeal has been filed or if a timely application for leave to appeal has been granted;

DEC 27 1982

- (ii) an order or judgment entered under paragraph (d)(2) if the bankruptcy judge certifies that circumstances require that the order or judgment be approved by a district judge, whether or not the matter was controverted before the bankruptcy judge or any notice of appeal or application for leave to appeal was filed; and
- (iii) a proposed order or judgment lodged under paragraph (d)(3), whether or not any notice of appeal or application for leave to appeal has been filed.

(B) In conducting review, the district judge may hold a hearing and may receive such evidence as appropriate and may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the order or judgment of the bankruptcy judge, and need give no deference to the findings of the bankruptcy judge. At the conclusion of the review, the district judge shall enter an appropriate order or judgment.

(3) When the bankruptcy judge certifies that circumstances require immediate review by a district judge of any matter subject to review under paragraph (e)(2), the district judge shall review the matter and enter an order or judgment as soon as possible.

(4) It shall be the burden of the parties to raise the issue of whether any proceeding is a related proceeding prior to the time of the entry of the order or judgment of the district judge after review.

(f) Local Rules

In proceedings before a bankruptcy judge, the local rules of the bankruptcy court shall apply. In proceedings before a judge of the district court, the local rules of the district court shall apply.

(g) Bankruptcy Rules and Title IV of Public Law 95-598

Courts of bankruptcy and procedure in bankruptcy shall continue to be governed by Title IV of Public Law 95-598 as amended and by the bankruptcy rules prescribed by the Supreme Court of the United States pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2075 and limited by SEC. 405(d) of the Act, to the extent that such Title and Rules are not inconsistent with the holding of Northern Pipeline Construction Co. v. Marathon Pipe Line Co., _____ U.S. _____, 102 S. Ct. 2858 (1982).

(h) Effective Date and Pending Cases

This rule shall become effective December 25, 1982, and shall apply to all bankruptcy cases and proceedings not governed by the Bankruptcy Act of 1898 as amended, and filed on or after October 1, 1979. Any bankruptcy matters pending before a bankruptcy judge on December 25, 1982 shall be deemed referred to that judge.

O R D E R

Pursuant to the authority of this court as set forth in Rule 927, Bankruptcy Rules, there is promulgated the following Local Rule of Bankruptcy practice:

REPORTING AND REPORTER'S FEES

(a) The Bankruptcy Judges of the District shall be authorized to designate official court reporters and all proceedings before them shall be recorded either by shorthand, stenotype or mechanically.

The bankrupt or debtor in any proceeding before the Bankruptcy Court shall pay a fee to the reporter in such amount and at such time as the Bankruptcy Judges shall fix. This fee shall constitute and be deemed to be a cost of such proceeding within the meaning of Section 2a(18) and 59g of the Bankruptcy Act. Money advanced for the purpose by the bankrupt or debtor shall be repaid to him out of the estate, when available, as part of the cost of administering the estate.

(b) In cases in which funds become available, the trustee, receiver, debtor-in-possession, or other officer of the court, shall upon order of the court, pay as an expense of administration any reporter's fee as the court shall fix.

(c) In all matters the court may order the fees for reporting services taxed as costs in accordance with Section

2a(18) of the Bankruptcy Act. The court may require the plaintiff, or applicant for relief in any matter, to pay an appearance fee for the reporter which may later, in the discretion of the court, be taxed against a party as costs in the proceeding or be ordered paid as an expense of administration.

(d) Any person in interest shall be entitled to a transcript of reported meetings, hearings, and proceedings upon payment of the charges to the reporter. The charges shall be as provided in the order of this court entered October 21, 1974, fixing the fees for the Official Reporters of the Court, these charges being as follows:

ORDER AMENDING THE BANKRUPTCY
RULES OF THE COURT

It is ORDERED that the rules of this Court are amended to provide as follows:

"A voluntary petition not accompanied by the filing fee shall be accepted for filing by the Clerk of the District Court if accompanied by an application signed by the petitioner for permission to delay payment of the filing fee. The application shall state the facts showing the necessity for late payment of the fees, when fees can reasonably be expected to be paid, and that the applicant has paid no more than twenty-five dollars to his attorney for services in connection with the case. The application shall be filed in duplicate, one copy for the Clerk and one for the Referee in Bankruptcy.

"For good cause shown a Referee may extend the time for payment of the filing fee to a date not later than six months after the date of filing of the petition.

"Filing fees must be paid in full before the bankrupt may pay his attorney, or before the attorney may accept, more than twenty-five dollars for services in connection with the case."

This amendment shall become effective on and after October 24, 1972.
